Author Confirmation of Patient Consent to Publication

I, [author name], confirm that I have obtained written consent from the patient/patient's guardian/patient's next of kin to publish [article title].
I informed the patient of the following: • Although the patient's name will not be published, details of her case may mean that complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed.
 This article will be published in a medical journal, which is distributed electronically and on paper to doctors, nurses, and other medical personnel.
 The article, in whole or in part, may be available on websites accessible to members of the public.
 Nothing contained in the article will be used for commercial purposes or used out of context.
 The signed consent form will be retained by the corresponding author of the paper; copies will not be sent to anyone else involved in the publication or distribution of the article.
I will retain a signed copy of the patient consent form.
